Tried, but Chris said "ov=rbooked." I had only one ticket and gave it to G. Sorry.

TED has way too many people.

I know you like books. In the middle of selling the first edition of Caxt=n's Mirroure of the Worlde, 1481. Complete copy, and belonged to Thomas Cram=er, who was Henry IV's right hand man, burned alive at the stake. It is the=first scientific book published in England, first illustrated English book,=and first English book that has a map. Really a lovely item. This copy sold=at Christies back in 1998 for over 850,000 U.S., and hasn't seen the light o= the market since then, as it is been locked up in a private collection. It=is the only complete copy outside of an institution. Only 11 complete copie= are known, of this is one.

Fun stuff.
