This telephone does not accept calls from me. It finally told me after numerous calls. I will revert to your cell.

Dear J,

No I didn't because I couldn't find the payment schedule J had sent you and manda.

Upon Johnny signing I will send him $31,680. This is more than the $22,446 he has sent you but less than the amount he wants to go to Columbia. I am stuck in that I HAVE to pay him the 31k and not anyone else.

Please can you explain to him that he should sign and he will get the money from me directly. The Columbia payment can then be made as required by you and him without my knowledge and in an agreement between you two.

I think he is waiting for you to pay him before he signs but the split in payments he is asking means that this is impossible for legal reasons. I suggest that in order to get the process started he should sign with me first and get paid by me and then sort out the rest with you and Columbia.

I think this is best for him, =ou and I.

So Johnny signs – I pay =im $31,680. He then deals with you re the balance and the =olumbia payment and that is something you and he will have to sort out =etween you. Hope this can be fixed.
