It was great to talk & we appreciate your taking the time. Could we talk again on M, T, W, Th or F mornings, 10:30 or later? (Or should I ask [REDACTED] instead?) Eric & I have waited a long time for our paradigm shift to come in; it's a strange position: we did invent streams & social networking, but of course that in itself (with the patents thrown in) is worth 0. We need to build the right business & we will, & enormously appreciate your talking to us about it.

Thanks again (& enjoy the Carrib; I've heard rumors that it's nice down there).

David
