Subject: Introduction

Dear Rob:

I hope this note finds you well! I'm sorry we didn't get a chance to connect before I fled the premises, but next time you are going to be in the Bay Area please let me know.

I'm writing now to introduce Jeffrey Epstein. Jeffrey is one of the most curious, intellectual, and creative people I know. He has gotten interested in sleep and dreaming, and so I of course thought of you. I've cc'ed him on this email, and will leave it to him to follow up.

Take good care,

S.
