please see below update re the Black Out Curtains for the theater room. Renato, they will ship to the PB house to your attention:

Lesley,

I heard back from our manufacturer. They told me that do have the d=apes in production. However, their offices and factory are closed for a lon= weekend starting 7/3, so likely they will not be able to get them complete= and shipped out until the following week. They estimated around July 9th-1=th as a target ship date.

Have a good weekend.=br class="">
