Ive waited for an hour for you to call. I don;t know if you hung up. I do not want to argue with you over the past. we have different views I want to be fair. I am trying to understand your expectations. As I understand it, you believe that there should be no change to my helping you, though you have decided to leave , and that after choosing to go your way instead of what i had requested of you. You chose to spend time becoming a pilot instead of beingthere for me. I understood , you made your choice. and now you expect the same level of support , whether you did as you promised or not. I had said nothing will change until our birthdays. I am still abiding by that.
