am waiting for a plane to australia in an hour so I thought I would touch base.. am waiting on John Preskill from Caltech.. if he cannot do it I will ask David Divenzenzo from IBM.. another really good quantum computer person. Martin Nowak has not responded.. maybe he is lying low after getting beaten up about his Nature article.. maybe you could lean on him?
I also have a great idea for a unique program that will bring the best young people in the country to Origins.. we can talk by skype if you want once I get to OZ..

also, are you coming Nov 6th?
