I only want good things for you. I am confused, I have asked you to do many things, over the past two years, In most instances you have declined . You chose to go your way, and not mine . I respect that right . I was disappointed , frustrated, angry, hurt, but you are strong minded and continued to choose your way. , and even though you did, I had continued to provide you help, guidance, love and support. I trust you , and you are my friend. Nan had suggested that consequences , was not a concept you understood. I will be able to speak today.
