i think you are acting like a spoiled child that got caught, breaking his promises. . i forgive you , My father thinks that he was right from the beginning and you were just leading me on. I am very hurt.

the only thing my Father was surprised was your behavior. He is my father and will always be on my side and will never believe the lies you made up to spoil my relations with family. And I think you should not call him or my Mother again.

I will not dignify your outrageous demands with a response, but i assume you will do as you agreed.
