I already moved 5 suitcases out, I mostly just have spare clothes here. The I-pad for Larry arrived in the store. It is only reserved until tomorrow but I don't have enough money in the bank to buy it anymore. Would you like to inform me what it is you are doing regarding my budget? You simply went from the way you had it set up for the past 6 years to now putting me in this situation every other month, without any notice. If you changed your mind, or numbers I deserve to be informed. Thanks
