Each one of the people you have paid for advice has asked you for your expectations of what you will do and what you expect in return. [REDACTED] asked for it in writing so to make sure you were" talking ownership of your responsibilities. " , [REDACTED] asked that you agree to a budget along with obligations . to maintain the coupleship., I have asked you to explain to me what you think would be fair , and give you integrity. It is up to you , to lay out your expectations , so that we can agree or disagree, reasonably, I have asked repeatedly for your thoughts. today's email does not seem appreciative of what you do receive.. Do you not have a credit card in my name. for Larry's toy
