Mr Lloyd contacted me to send him my CV and in wich domain I would like to work.

Hyatt also contacted me and I have an interview with them monday next week. She also asked me the same question...in wich department I would like to work. I told her that I have no work experience and I want to learn. She already told me that there are a few openings in some of the departments, but that will be better to talk more at the interview. So I have to think very well what to say...
