C.G.C.G. Tile and Marble put together an estimate that would cost $4,289.00 to tile the patio off the kitchen. They do NOT have enough 24x24 to do the patio. They do have enough 18x18. Ordering the 24x24 would take 8-10 weeks for delivery. If they use the 18x18 the tiles would fit without any border needed. Every other tile would have a vein cut going the same direction (same as rest of house). The work can not be scheduled until the week after next and the work would take 4 days (possibly less).
