

To: [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Wed 8/19/2009 11:08:47 PM
Subject: Re:

you think thats crazy, i was walking with igor on the way to the office.. police stop me, tell me i am under arrest for a probation violation. a detective comes. other police, , cars,, they tell me that they spoke to the probation supervisor, and that i was not walking to the office. they can't get officer sloan on the phone, so they are screaming that they received calls. from people that see me on the street, , they told me they are watching me, they said they know i go to work in the evening. It was not fun.

On Wed, Aug 19, 2009 at 6:02 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

Flying in New York was very eye opening. I just learned my radio skills suck. I just finished a flight from Westchester with an instructor. There is no way I could have done it by myself. Boy, it's a different feeling being surrounded by jets in a little cessna and fighting to get a word in on the radio with NY approach.. It was like a tv game show where you need to be the first to push the button or you lose. I lost. The instructor was laughing at me not being able to get on the radio and then when I did I forgot what I wanted to say.. ;-)
Oops

PS: The tower actually warns you about wake turbulence even 1min after the jets depart. We just joked about actually flying behind a jet in lantana..This was crazy

Sent via BlackBerry by AT&T

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments.