We need to prioritize , in terms of money things that I see or use.. my laundry room , will be better equipped with new electric, modern appliances. than my movie room, which electric wiring is wacky. same for tiki. There are men working on the walls for the road to the flag pole, There are many many more things for them to do. this is the lowest of priorities. as it is endless. Upgrading my living spaces.. i.e. gym floor. electric . air and stereo for example. the mechanical building is for support. i will never see it.
