the idea that you believe i would do something INTENTIONALLY hurt your feelings,, is crazy to me. I need to have my own time.. where i am not questioned, nagged, interrogated, ie you promised, i wanted, why didn't you. what are you doing.. what position did you sit in, she's a bitch, you don't see, why did you. why can't i, It appears that my having fun without you , hurts your feelings. what effort have you made,, you bought two videos --i have been home for over a week. it would be great if you would think about me and try to make things nice, it would be great if you stopped blaming everyone else. [REDACTED] doug brice, janusch, , they were supposed to... they were not supposed to.. you didn't leave enough time for... How about THANK YOU , I have freedom to learn, support for my hobby, both emotional and financial.
