I know you appreciate seeing positions in writing so as to enable you to adequately reflect on issues. so, with that in mind I thought I'd attempt to convey to you my thoughts on friendship and norman. You and I have different strategies for dealing with others. I have learned a great deal. re the benefits of full knowledge. As the conversations re philosophy are extremely enlightening, you have opened my mind to other ways of thinking. AS a friend, I share my toys and pleasures. When you and Earl came to my house in the 90's earl asked me to try to convince you to buy a house. Endless discussions ensued. me denying benefits you, fighting back but eventually willing to try. I looked for houses for you and with you. I made thirty to forty trips to your house to discuss. wood color in your office, take you shopping myself for carpet, the ballroom floor, window bar, lights, dining room, library ceiling, artwork, staircase, each time driving down to help a friend. Re norman, I brought andrew down to help you kick start the project. I have watched as little has advanced for various reasons. I was attempting to do the same thing with norman as I had done for your living in new york situation. try as a friend to persuade you to try something new, to have fun.. as i extend my hand in friendship, it appears you first want to see what's in it, tell me how much it will cost me for you to shake it, and then charge me for parking.
