you are being silly.. are you sure about health care.? you relieve her of debt obligation. get it done and behind you. i will help you through.. go to a divorce site.. list all your assets obligations taxes, revenues,, do it as you were going to divorce tomorrow night. we can then discuss. it.

ps.. thinking more clearly today:
complex issues:

1. when we divorce, my wife loses health care benefits.. which I will suddenly have to pay by third party healthcare instead of auto coverage under my ASU healthcare.
2. How do you divide up property that is not worth mortgage?

all these things suggest to me better to wait till I get some debts under control and mortgage is paid down a bit.. then I can make clean break and just give her $/month anyway will talk.. looking forward to seeing you soon in Arizona.. and sometime going on a trip where we can take a long walk and not just grab a few minutes on the phone.. too many interesting things left undiscussed
