googling "Scholar jailed " gets 250 k hits,, "scholar assassinated" gets 500k hits. " how many have actually returned to their home countries

Dr. Henry Jarecki, board chairman of the fund, says it typically provides fellowships for one to two years and that up to 50 percent of the scholars return to their home countries, though often to a different area. In most of those cases, by that time the leadership has changed or the politics have changed.
