I know Jeffrey, I am sorry... At the time I "forgot" i would be traveling at the end of the month, and took my month for being free..
But with the exams, the need to work here to have money for Brasil and to pay my bills before I go, plus time to spend with my dad; This month has become hectic and I feel like I'm running against a deadline..

I could come today. I just have a doctor's appointment at 2:00pm.
I just would have to come back on Wed. night because of the sonogram/mammogram scheduled for the 11th at 9:30am.
I had a hard time scheduling that appointment because every radiologist seems to be really backed up for mammograms..
It was best to schedule everything as soon as possible so that all the results would be ready on time, and I wouldn't have to worry about anything last minute.
I think the best time to come would be once I get back, like we had talked about. I could come back on the 21st. And spend sometime there with no other worries.
