sorry I didn't get back to you last weekend.. it has been crazy as I try and get some things done.. talked to barnaby for a long time the other day.. useful.. I sent him the keynote document I had presented at our internal origins meeting at ASU last may to give him an idea of programs for coming year, btw.. am sending it to you too, in case you want to look at it.. (in ppt format since you may not have keynote)

I will try and touch base this weekend.

Also, will be in Miami-FLL area Aug 6-8 on route to brazil again.. have just bought ticket but hoped we could meet.. which is essentially the reason for my layover (get in eve of the 6th, leave eve of the 8th), so I may think of hotel near you.. but anyway we can worry about that later..
