Jeffrey,

One of my neighbors works for the Crestron and he tells me they are one of the top companies in the business and have done work for the white house, Sheiks in Saudi Arabia and many other high profile individuals. They do home theaters, Audio, Control Systems and lighting and other services. I know we have some issues with Nick Lambros so if you would like to see their web site and see what they offer for you self the link is below. Just thought I would throw it out there for you.

Thank you

Emad Hanna
