Hello Jeffrey,

Hoping this warm weather in New York is a sign for a good Spring to come.

I want to share some wonderful news with you:

Bergdorf Goodman, in addition to stocking some of my creations, is now officially selling my entire collection by special order.

Neiman Marcus is having great success with my collection of lucite boxes embellished with semiprecious stones.

Aid for Aids International commissioned me to create their Humanitarian Award trophy. It is a great honor for me as it is an organization that helps mostly women and children around the world. This trophy will be reproduced in a smaller scale and sold exclusively through my website with proceeds going to benefit this wonderful charity.

"(Eduardo Garza's work is something) worth paying for that can completely make a room. "

Please visit my new website EduardoGarza and if my work speaks to you I would be very happy to custom create a special design for your environment or if you choose from my existing designs I would be happy to hand make it with you in mind.

The first five people who place an order and type "I'd like complimentary shipping " in the section of the order form marked "notes" will receive complimentary shipping on their entire order within the US (excluding Hawaii and Alaska).

Wishing you the best!

Warmest regards,

Eduardo Garza
