Jeffrey,

The use of your New York apartment is not only a welcome rest to my travel weary bones, but also a great relief to my pitiful paltry purse. I regret that sometimes we have to change our arrangements and I know this is confusing for Lesley, but you should be assured that she always handles this with pleasant professionalism.

It is my hope that your health is good, your spirits are high and you have not only a smile on your face, but that famous twinkle in your eye.

Jerry
