Jeffrey,
just heard back from David Burch at Edwards,.
30% of Bell 430's have floats, he knows of a couple of Chevron Bell 430 with High time they are parting out,. he thinks the value of copilot controls are $20k and floats could be purchased for $50k,.
if we could get Mick to deduct $75K from current price, we'd be ahead of the game,, Dave Burch said our Bell 430 is a great buy, just FYI,.
the maintenance box is $17K and Dave Burch said its not necessary to own, since all Bell facilities have them,.
please advise if you approve of $75k decuction,?
price would be $1,525,000.00 for the Bell 430,.

Larry
