Hi Jeffrey,

for your records your yahoo and flickr user/password is:

[REDACTED]

- will continue with public profiles
- am going to create locked blogs.
- need to call the profile sites I've done to ask them how I can optimize you.
- will then get science press material on/from you to put on news article sites etc. You have some positive info on science sites but it only comes up if you google your name with the word science.
