you have to be a pretty good actor, right?

A I was.

Q Let's talk about you and your co-conspirators' acting skills.

You orchestrated phony telephonic court hearings, didn't you?

A I did.

Q Now, a real telephonic court hearing is where a judge allows the participants to participate by telephone, right?

A Yes.

Q But in your phony telephonic hearings, you would have your firm's lawyers or other lawyers fake like they were the participants in a real hearing, right?

A I had Scott Goldstein pretend to be Judge Marra.

Q And who, for example, would be attending a fake hearing with a fake Judge Marra?

A In this case, one of my co-conspirators, Ted Morse, and his father, who was an innocent, Edward Morse.

Q And what part did you play?

A The lawyer.

Q Other times you used people to play the part
