Yeah that I asked him , because he told me we supposed to get answer December but date sign in January so he explained me that they sent earlier but than the department sent back because they were needed improving paper showing that we were the case in court and our pix , and the lawyer sent it again and had to filed out this application again , for my question why he put his signature he said: " it's just an application , not a document and ppl there even don't care, don't worry our lawyer know what he is doing " and hopefully we should get it soon he will let me know .
