personally I want to go there less than I dont want to go there. Its going so well with Ben (he told me "je t'aime" for the first time last night, ahah) and I dont want to be so far away from my new friends - you and [REDACTED] (she is like best friend in paris now) and parents

I finish with clifford on 20 Jan, your birthday, and after i dont want to waste 6 months on doing nothing just waiting for semester to start in US.. I better find a job/internship but all i find (us and australia i have proposals) is unpaid

I have asked Pim, the Swedish woman I met during the UN tour if they propose internships in IPI in NY - she said they launches them this month, so I ll apply too are you really going to go there?

2011/12/5 [REDACTED]

Jeffrey,

nice talking to you and having your opinion on law careers in US..

what is your mailing address in NY or island depending where you will be around x mas

Id like to send you a postcard and maybe a letter before i depart to australia
