Dear Professor Boyd

I am reading with great interest your book,
On the Origins of Stories.

I am also studying evolution, mostly from a mathematical perspective. I am very interested in evolution of cooperation and human language.
Please find below a link to my home page:

I wonder if you have any plans to visit the US and if I could invite you to visit my institute at Harvard University and to give a seminar on your fascinating work?

I would very much like to learn from you and to explore the possibility of common research.

Best wishes
Martin Nowak
