well i went to my school office they don't have a different classes that would help progress my english, accept my TOFEL classes ,that i go now . ESL is even lower level , so i decided to go to Hunter College and asked them could i take classes without applying to I-20 , as my current school will be still NY General Consalting and i will take just extra classes there . They actually have more options what i like but i need a letter from my school that showing they allowed me take extra classes, will try get 2row , what do you think?
