Dear [REDACTED] AS you know I have flown to Europe on my first stop on my way to the Ivory Coast. Unfortunately, my colleague and partner, the man you met in N.Y. Tom Pritsker head of Hyatt hotels and various other co.s, had to return to the states. The economic crisis in the euro has taken some by surprise.. I very much believe in the great opportunity that the Ivory Coast presents. I feel awful having to cancel the trip. but I feel it important as your uncles time is precious that he gets to see more than just me. I would be glad to come, but think it wiser to delay the trip until the 17th of December where I might also bring Sultan from Dubai with me as well.. I hope this has not caused any difficulties, and once again I apologize for the change. The ambassador and I will coordinate in New York
