Sir, I believe in the past there may have been some miscommunication. I assure you that I have the utmost respect for both the president and his colleagues. I did not however in the past receive any confirmation of time or availability. That being said I am anxious to spend time, and understand the country, its needs and its opportunities. If you were to be so kind, I can visit anytime between Jan 14-16, if that is convenient. I am looking forward to a new beginning. I have copied [REDACTED], so as to enable her to assist in our interaction. Thank you in advance for your attention.
