you told me you would make an effort to stop talking so much,, i am in the begiingin of tmny work day and you come up crying again you take my time, refuse to answer my questions and talk and talk bout the dog. this is not a priority for me, it distracts me, in the middle of a complex task, you continue to cry and tell me no, i want to come and continue this same discussion though i have asked and you have promised to stop,,
