Unfortunately, I ran out of time, I am heartbroken having to delay my program, but I hope that I can begin at christies during the next available cycle. I sincerely appreciate all your help and thank you in advance for your understanding. ----- [REDACTED] , I spent a great deal of my day yesterday attempting to navigate a solution. If you decide to move forward, the issues are the following. It makes me crazy that this could have been avoided if we had known that all I had to do was transfer money to a bank acct last month for you. and the CAS would have been easy. You need to show 15 k pounds in it for 28 days. -- I am sensitive to your not wanting to ask for help. but in the future, I am a perfect friend, I could have edited your correspondence with Christies. it would have avoided complications. , since the English was confused and the tone asking for special treatment, re waivers. I am here to meet, I know how you feel. Please also check with your lawyer if you have one on the two week notice, even if the co is disbanded. ? I am told, but not by lawyers that many co's close but the labor laws are outside and still applicable.

What should I write to Christie's, to end it in a good way?
