J is very stressed cause of his fund... Apparently not doing that well this year. I told him that everyone has been losing money and that he is working on a huge thing right now and progressing when most people are going down and that I m very proud of him (instead of saying - don't worry, I got a job now)) - since I m a good person didn't say that)... He s coming home from colorado, sounded super stressed... Shall I just continue repeating that he s wonderful and I m proud of him etc... Is there anything else I can say to be a nice person?

He also wanted me to organise something on jewish new year...

Miss you
