Great we will do that. One of the two people I will have for this is currently working for Sarkozy – and leads the group of Internet advisers to presidents, prime ministers and foreign ministers – 20 of them worldwide. He will start with us later this year but is well set up for this, and organised for eG-8 in Paris this summer... I've attached info on this meeting he is putting together, and invited me to speak at.

Is there anything tomorrow or at the weekend that is definitely worth staying for?

I am tossing up between staying in NY or going to Singapore for the GP – leaving early tomorrow – as the Prime Minister and his wife just asked me to reconsider coming to meet folks there on their Temasek summit.
