I asked a few times. He said - no, just be supportive. And he said it was annoying that I kept asking if I could do anything for him... At the same time when I wanted to go to another room to study on sunday "where r u going?? U leaving me?" Etc... Hard to find a balance here.

At the same time he wants my opinion on his work... (As if I had one...) I prefer to use my mouth in a different way, but he wants to hear smart things coming out from that mouth...

J is very stressed cause of his fund... Apparently not doing that well this year. I told him that everyone has been loosing money and that he is working on a huge thing right now and progressing when most people are going down and that I m very proud of him (instead of saying - don't worry, I got a job now)) - since I m a good person didn't say that)... He s coming home from colorado, sounded super stressed... Shall I just continue repeating that he s wonderful and I m proud of him etc... Is there anything else I can say to be a nice person?

He also wanted me to organise something on jewish new year...

Miss you
