Great seeing you.

SIMRAD StructureScan:

I'm friends with the media guy... so I might be able to arrange some demo if you wish.

BUMPKEY:

Here's a bumpkey source: (not sure I got it there)

Here's a nice carry knife you might like:

Get the serrated version.

You asked about "smart folks" and I have a lot of 'em... depends on the project... both Israeli and USA folks...

Also remember, now that the Jewish New Year is here, a festival of charitable giving begins... and Hourglass Initiative could sure use your financial beneficence.

Thanks,

Dan
