Jeffrey,

-The Boeing is safe in the hanger at Jet Aviation in case the hurricane does not continue on its projected path,. I think we'll have minimum effects in palm beach,.I was just being causes,.
-The Gulfstream will be impacted by Sunday in NY, which is the intended path of the hurricane, winds are forecast to be around 100mph by that time, but to early to tell, storm should be past NYC by Monday PM,.
-I should move the GII by Friday PM at the latest, any thoughts on where I should take it?

-Boeing photo shoot went well yesterday, Don sent a great photographer to take still shots, they also interviewed me in video format to explain high points of the aircraft to be used on their web sight,. very impressed with AvPro's marketing, I think we'll get results,.

thx,
Larry,.
