Jeffrey, i know everything that you gave me, your care of me...and i will always remember and appreciate it . I never tell you no or i prefer no to come if you check our messages , i only said don't know what should i do and that why ask you an advice cause you always told me i should do what i like to do, you want see me happy and even you was agree don't change school a during fashion week , to safe time for castings and if you told me you should come i wouldn't even ask any questions and come because how i told before i really wanted to come to you . And also We all make mistakes sometimes, but now I clearly understand what t more important to me in my life and I can clearly say that if i get up to life choices, I 'm choosing YOU. and i still want to come...
