gary ,, received from ion.....

..and, can i ask you something? can you please before i go to the island confirm with garry kerney that the room is ready?..because each time i went there to do something, they said that the room is or are ready and then when i got there it wasnt ready for me. last time when i went to do the relax room, once i started suddenly the entire island came to work in that room.. people started instaling the doors, others were working instaling windows, then the electricians came to do alll the electric part..and not for one or two days..but for like two weeks.. so it was very hard to do venetian plaster with all those people arround..so i had to do continously touch ups.

maybe i will try to call garry kerney too..he said that the room will be done sept 7.

thank you,
ion
