hi jeffrey,
..so i did this sample on the concrete building but i didnt finish the sample.. i have to do details...like top and bottom of the columns, that trim between roof and wall.. maybe the inside of the columns (the thickness of the wall) i should do it wider.. what do you think?
and what do think about the gray inside columns? if we do that red i think would be very bold.. being far on the water you would see first this buildings.. thank you,
ion
