Subject: invoice

Hi Igala

My life is very hectic with work these days and I have clients on a waiting list. I am sorry I could not send the invoice/plant list yesterday.

This is what is available for LSJ now if paid by wire within 10 days and if picked up by end month. Deals are happening fast now and if LSJ does not move fast even these will be gone.

As mentioned to you in a month or so I may have another container worth of plants as I am still holding some plants for other customers I am designing projects for, but if the deal does not go through I can offer them to you.

Please tell mr Epstein that I already applied a 20% discounts to my prices eliminating all the maintenance costs that have rocketed the prices up since January. The plants are oversize for the pot as I have not repotted them up as I should have because I want to sell them, but we kept feeding them and treating them with all the best professional nursery practices.

Also tell him that if he pays according to the terms, I am willing to visit the island and provide consultation advice on where these plants should be planted and how to prepare the soil mix and drainage, which are the most critical things for success and I am an expert on this. My drainage and soil design allow my plants to grow bigger over the years when I instead I see other people's planting dying and replaced after 6 months or a year.
