Jeffrey

Following receipt of a suggested letter from your lawyers to go in the Duchesses name please see below my response which I never got a reply on.

Please also be aware that the Duchess has given several interviews and made the following comments as requested by you.

He has always been there for me. He pleaded guilty many years ago to a prostitution crime, not a crime of pedophilia as has been the tabloids exaggeration. . He has asked for forgiveness and paid his debt. I have nothing more to say.

James

Paul

Thanks for this

Could you let me know what the proposed distribution of this letter is

Also I think in the first para we should be clear that the Duchess never said he was a paedophile in any way
