Dear Mr Larson

Just before going to sleep I wanted to share with you my personal appreciation and sense of security to know that there is somebody out there trying to help us out in the unfair situation we are in, I am considering what we talked about along with the family and will get back to you tomorrow, if I were to meet her it would be done discreetly without anyone knowing and of course it would be off the record, I am just worried in someway it backfires and this is the last thing we need. I am speaking my thoughts out with you on a personal level. We are the weak ones now and trying to push out way out safely away from all this, just to have this family back together safely. I miss my husband dearly, I suddenly found myself all alone with our baby daughter in the middle of all this big mess trying to fight so hard to get him back and to get all the family safely back together. Anyway these are just thoughts I am sharing before I sleep. I'll sleep on it and discuss further with you tomorrow. I cannot express enough our appreciation for your support.

Warm Regards

Khadiga El Gammal
