just confirming that you know i was not able to tell A about anything we discussed since i couldn't see him in person. also haven't been in touch with S but will send her a note today saying that you will happily allow her to keep the mother's army websitebefore i do should i suggest that you will allow her to keep the rights to it but you are happy to continue to pay the annual fee associated with the ownership and maintenance unless she wants to take that over. ??

it's interesting we were talking about "power" - have you heard the kanye west rap song "power" - some funny lyrics that might resonate
