AJ: Hi [REDACTED], [REDACTED] passed on your number to me. Are you free for a quick chat please.
[REDACTED]: Please introduce yourself and what is it about? [REDACTED] didn't ask my permission to give my number and never told me about you.

AJ: Hi, my name's Amanda and it's regarding your dealings with Jeffrey Epstein. This is an opportunity for you to make a substantial amount of money. I work for a newspaper in the UK and would like the opportunity to speak with you to put across our offer. I have a colleague in New York now who can meet with you at your convenience to discuss financial details of what we can offer you. He is happy to meet confidentially to discuss this with you. We have seen pictures of you with Epstein and would like to speak to you about this. What do you think? Kind regards
[REDACTED]: Can I have a telephone number of your friend?

AJ: Sure. He's called Maz from News of the World and is on: [REDACTED]. I've told him to expect your call. Regards. Amanda

[REDACTED]: I wonder what do you mean by substantial?

AJ: Maz will be able to explain what we can offer but suffice to say we are the UK's biggest selling paper and pay better than anyone else. He can give you a figure that I am sure you will be more than happy with.

AJ: Hi, all ok? Maz is still waiting for your call. He's keen to explain in detail what our offer will be. I can assure you that it will be a confidential discussion and he can talk about payment. There is money available here on our part and Maz is happy to talk it through with you. If you have any queries etc he can talk them through with you. Take care, Amanda

[REDACTED] : What story about [REDACTED] do you want to make? And which magazine? I need to talk to him first to know that he is ok with that. We have broken up with him though...

AJ: Please speak to Maz. Just give him a call. He can explain our position. It's not about [REDACTED]. We have pictures of you with Jeffrey. Maz will be able to explain and give you an idea of the money we are talking.

[REDACTED] : Which Jeffrey? I m confused now

AJ: Jeffrey Epstein. This is your chance to make a lot of money. You can help with the words of the story and have input. We will enable you to have a photoshoot, hair, make-up etc...In a nutshell this is your chance for fame and fortune! As I said, I'm in London but Maz is in New York, awaiting your call and happy to talk to you confidentially about the large sum of money we will give you for your cooperation with the story. We sell millions of copies of our newspaper and have the resources to pay big money for stories. This is a great offer and opportunity for you. You have nothing to lose in talking to Maz about this. He's waiting to hear from you. Do you have a favourite bar or restaurant? Money is no object he can meet you anywhere. His number is [REDACTED]. Hear what he has to say at least.

[REDACTED] : Amanda, I ve spoken to [REDACTED] today and he said that you 1. Wanted to offer me a modeling job 2. Told him you knew me personally... Neither of this is true... If it wasn't about him - why would you put his name at the top of the text? Are you his new girlfriend trying to get information from me... If so - I m the wrong person to ask now. I m sorry, I think our conversation is finished. To cut it short: 1. I don't want to make story about [REDACTED]. 2. I don't know anything about "jeffrey" you mention. Best, [REDACTED]
