The black and white LSJ photo for 71st dining room can also be printed on canvas and stretched. I'm getting quotes for this now from a few different places. Do you prefer for it to be printed on canvas instead of vinyl?

So far I have a quote from Duggal which is $1764 to print on canvas, and $2500 to have it stretched. Since it's so large, they will have to stretch it on wood surrounded by aluminum.

I'm waiting on a quote from Coloredge Visual who has done all our large prints in the past. They should be less expensive than Duggal.
