The Mission Inn reservations were made through Wurman's office...I requested the reservations be made for Sept 18-20 (check out on 20th) but they are for check out on 21st (because there is a dinner on the 20th they thought you may like to attend)

We must cancel the reservation for night of the 20th on the 19th in order to not be charged.

Would you like me to just cancel the night of the 20th now?
